

Public Complaints about Instructional/Library Materials

The Board of Education, as the governing body of the Richmond School District, is legally responsible for all educational materials relating to the operation of the district. When parents/guardians and citizens have concerns about particular instructional programs or materials, including digital materials, they will be processed in accordance with established procedures.

The Richmond School District does not discriminate in the selection and evaluation of instructional materials including textbooks, Instructional Media Center materials, and digital content used in the instruction of students on the basis of sex, race, national origin, color, ancestry, creed, religion, pregnancy, marital or parental status, sexual orientation, handicap or physical, mental, emotional or learning disability. Discrimination complaints shall be processed in accordance with established administrative procedures.
