

The Richmond School District's academic standards have been developed over the course of the years blending the Wisconsin Model Academic Standards, Common Core Curriculum Standards, Essential Elements (alternate standards for students with severe disabilities), Next Generation Science Standards, and locally developed standards.